

List of silver made June 20th 1901. Copied from a list made April 20th 1891. revised & added to,
"List Silver"

- 1 silver bread basket — given to F. P. T. Burke by his grandmother
- 1 set heavy silver Castors, with mustard & pepper Spoon ^{Fanny} Virginia B. Burke
- 1 sugar dish
- 1 cream pitcher given when she married to Ellen C. Burke
- 1 Soup Ladle Edmund J. Burke
- 1 Fish Slice Harry B. Burke

5 Tea spoons marked List but belonged to Philip Livingston Jones my grand mother's 2nd husband, who requested that my father Nicholas List should take his name "Philip" which he did, Mr Jones left him all of his silver among other things in my handsome & complete silver tea service upon a solid silver tray, my father never rec^d any thing but the 5 tea spoons, the rest all being absorbed into the family of my grand mother's 3rd husband by whom she had 2 children, Mary & Julian de "Tournillon", my father of course never would claim the Jones silver. The little spoons should be marked P. L. J. this accounts for the Philip in my fathers name, he was christened Nicholas List after his grand father who was in the battle of "Bunker Hill" in the "Royal Irish"

Regiment of which his brother was Col. my grandfather was at first "Ensign" and was promoted to Captain or to Lieutenant.

The teaspoons belonging to the Irish silver were never sent to my father, nor were the saltcellars, which were open work with blue glass linings. oblong in shape with the corner cut off  to continue the "kick of silver"

1 Asparagus fork or spoon, given to Mary Irish by my Mother

21 Table Spoons - one was stolen in "France" (the others

17 Desert Spoons (nines were sent to my father

5 salt spoons
