

Dear Miss Jefferson

I have got a note from M^{rs} de la Vauhalaise to invite us to dine with her Monday that we may walk about with her daughters to see St. Cloud. She ~~also~~^{says} she should be extremely happy to see you & desires me to say she would send an invitation but that she her word I would save her that trouble. I flatter myself it is unnecessary of her me to tell you that it would give us great pleasure if you would be of the party with us. I hope you will as I think you would like it as there will be only ~~the~~ family

& ourselves if you do not have the trouble of dropping & we shall return to Paris before eight & nine I am afraid you will want the assistance of Mr. Babington to decipher this as I am in a great hurry to drop to dine at the hospital as ambassador adieu
Yours
E. J. [Signature]

[Faint, illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

from Lady Elizabeth Tufton & Miss Jefferson