

Mr Madison to Th. J. R.

Th. J. Randolph Esq

Edge Hill.

Mr Madison presents her best respects and regards to Mr Jefferson Randolph, and offers in the words of her departed husband the relic he bequeathed him. In executing his Will she fully participates in the sentiments which guided the disposition he made of it.

"I desire the Gold mounted walking Staff bequeathed to me by my late friend Thomas Jefferson be delivered to Thomas J. Randolph as well in testimony of the esteem I have for him as from the knowledge I have of the place he held in the affections of his Grandfather."

Montpelier August 1836.
