

Warren July 25th 1816

Well my dear Jane, here we are all once more; I arrived in Richmond on the 10th inst, not very well, and excessively fatigued. We determin'd as we were all complaining a little, that it woud be best, or safest, to set off immediately for Warren, we arriv'd on Saturday, quite happy, and very much delighted to see old Warren again. The girls are already quite well, and I hope to be so in a few days. We are all anxiety to see you, and our sweet baby, ~~but that~~ I am much mortified that I cannot send for you immediately, but the carriage is obliged to go down tomorrow for your Father, he cannot be up before next Wednesday. Now this the girls say is an age, what think you? could you not send your horses over for your Aunt Carr's carriage, and come down on Sunday? the girls are calling to me, that ^{they} can't live longer than ^{the} Sunday, without seeing the Baby, if you will only send her, they will be satisfied, contrive it I pray you if it be possible. If you could bring your hunt Carr with you it would be still better, but will not be in my power to visit her before the middle of next Month; her Son and his family will visit her next Month, Eliza sent a great deal of love ^{to} them, all and particularly to you. I left Carytown bitter, but not well enough to go to the Country. We received two letters from John, before I left Richmond, he said that she was still recovering slowly, but that they had employ'd a wet nurse to assist her, until she got quite well. I fear her recovery will be as slow as yours. The girls say you must give Margaret a kiss for each of them, and you will give her a dozen at least for me, bring her, if it be possible on Bunday. My love to Jefferson, and respects to the family. with great

Affection
Sally Nicholas
