Dear Sir Jefferson,

May come this evening at five o'clock, as we want to show you a new work, which I dare say you will like very much. I am dying to see your verses, and want very much to know the secret. I can hardly flatter myself it is of any importance to me. And Bob will be of the party.
to night, but said he, was engaged till he heard you were to come. indeed you are very cruel to be the death of so many people.
Mr. Gunning is too cruel.

sickly to go out. with courage.

most sincerely,

Elizabeth desires her love.
Dear
