Dear Tom.

Ben Hughes, I suppose, will write to you by this opportunity giving an account of your affairs at Virginia, which are disturbing as to the crop, and harvest not come enough for the use of the farm. 700 bushels of wheat and much better quality, refaced by Boyd & Her. but they have, by any advice employed the Pleasant to grind it and to make into shirts stuff or second, and to push the value of it to your credit. I have not heard from your Harwic since he left Virgin, has he taken the Boy & Girl. The two oldest of children with. I wish you to send them to Virginia by the first opportunity by a wagon or by water. Give my love to the girls.
